NEW ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE APPOINTED AT FERC

Chairman James J. Hoecker today announced the appointment of Carmen Ana Cintron as an Administrative Law Judge at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Judge Cintron previously served as Hearing Office Chief Administrative Law Judge in the Office of Hearings and Appeals of the Social Security Administration in Chamblee, Georgia, a position she had held since 1996.

From 1994 to 1996, she was Administrative Law Judge with the Social Security Administration in San Jose, California.

Earlier, she was Legal Assistant to the Division Chief, Mobil Services Division, Common Carrier Bureau, Federal Communications Commission (FCC). She worked for the FCC from 1980 to 1994, serving first as a trial attorney and later as a general attorney.

Prior to joining the FCC, she was a trial attorney for the Puerto Rico Department of Justice and an attorney/advisor with the House Judiciary Committee on Civil Law, Puerto Rico House of Representatives.

She obtained her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Puerto Rico, graduating cum laude. She also earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, graduating magna cum laude, from the University of Puerto Rico.

She will be sworn in at a formal ceremony on December 6.
